

Decide what to read with your book club

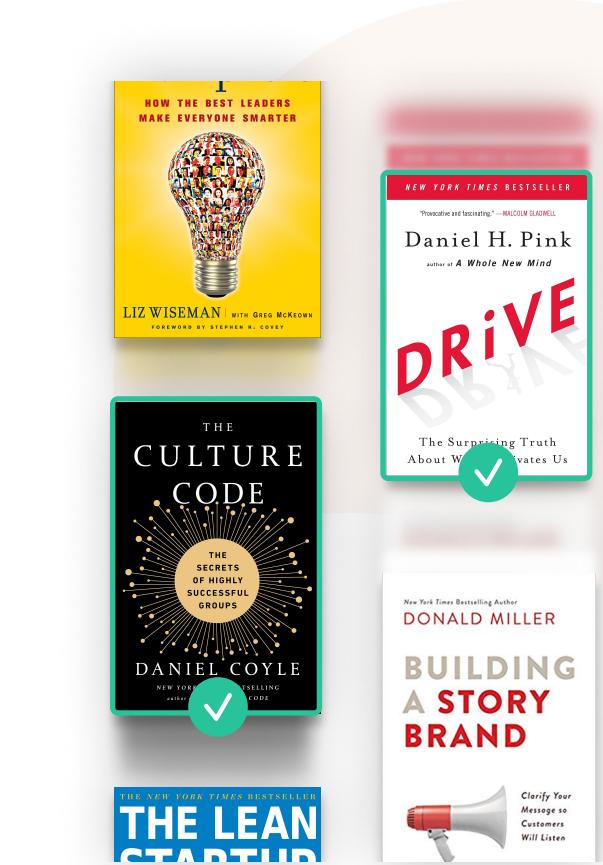

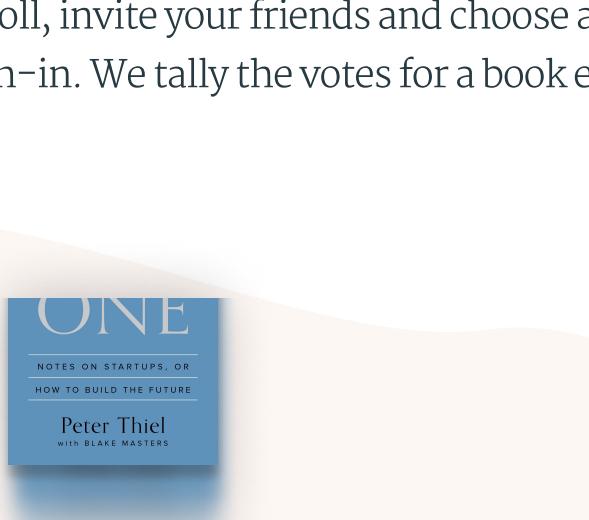

Choosing a book to read with friends can leave people out or take forever to do. You can give everyone a voice in choosing a book and make it easy to find something everyone will enjoy.

Pick a book. Together.

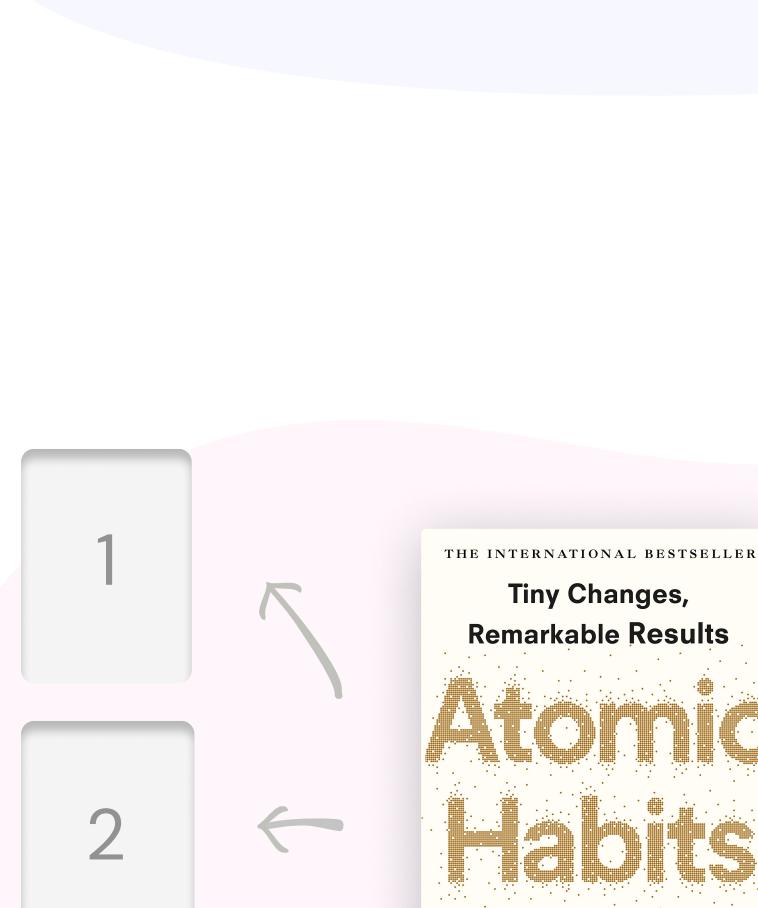

Select a genre and we'll suggest titles or pick the top books on your list. Everyone in the group offers books they want to read.

VOTE

Seconds to set up. Easy to do.

No signup required. Just create a poll, invite your friends and choose a book together. With a quick swipe, each person can weigh-in. We tally the votes for a book everyone wants to read.

SUGGEST

Select a genre and we'll suggest titles or pick the top books on your list. Everyone in the group offers books they want to read.

VOTE

Vote in seconds. We tally the votes and show you what everyone is willing to read and what they'd rather not.

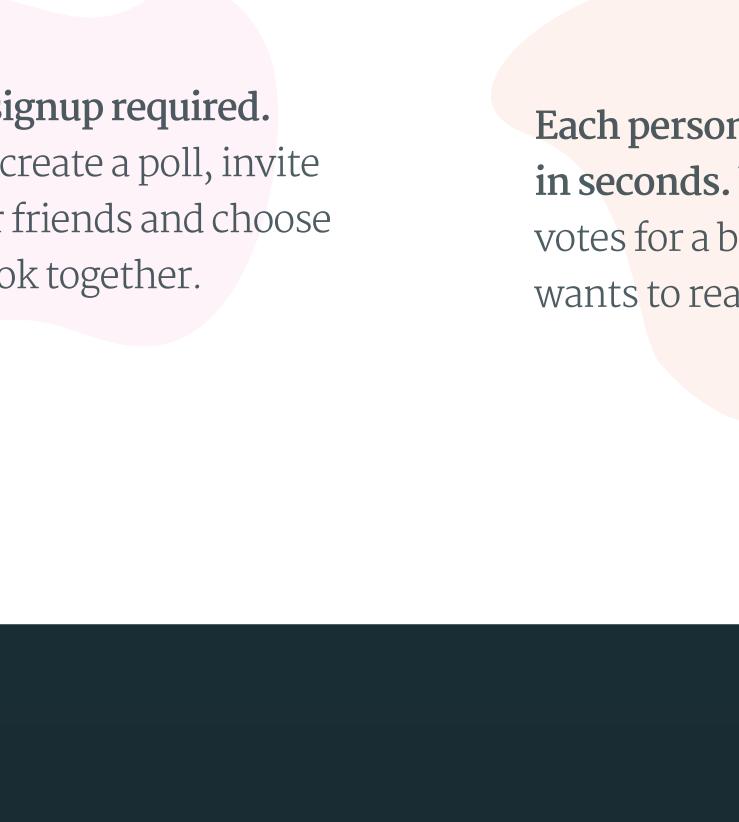

1 of 9

RANK

People reading good things together is reward enough. We hope you find something you love. Happy voting!

Easy, fast and free

We love reading with people and want to make it easier to pick what you'll dive into together.

We are on a mission to get more people everywhere reading together.

No signup required. Just create a poll, invite your friends and choose a book together.

Each person can vote in seconds. We tally the votes for a book everyone wants to read.

It's totally free. People reading good things together is reward enough. We hope you find something you love. Happy voting!

Your email address

JOIN WAIT LIST

Made with love for you by

Campfire